1.Introduction:

Our project is a website design that allows customers to browse and view various products such as groceries, snacks, dairy, fruits, vegetables, juice, household items, and more. While it is currently not fully functional, our design mimics that of the Blinkit website. This cloning process allowed us to gain valuable insights and learn various website-building techniques and technologies. Our website is built using Bootstrap and JavaScript, providing a responsive and user-friendly interface. This report will outline the design process, our methods, and the technology used in creating our website. In addition to the website design, our project also contains links to various webpages for different categories of products. These categories include fruits and vegetables, snacks, groceries, biscuits, household items, and more. Customers can navigate through these pages to view specific products and their details. Our website also includes a search bar to allow customers to search for products they are interested in. The inclusion of these links and search feature enhances the user experience and helps customers find the products they need quickly and efficiently.

1.1 Project Modules:

1.1.1 Homepage:

Our website's homepage showcases a wide range of product categories, including fruits and vegetables, snacks, groceries, biscuits, household items, and more. Customers can easily browse through these categories to find products that meet their specific needs. We have also included a navigation bar that helps customers easily navigate to different parts of the website. Additionally, a search bar is prominently placed on the homepage to help customers quickly find the products they are looking for. Our website's footer section is designed to provide customers with useful links to additional resources, such as frequently asked questions, contact information, and more. We have also included links to our social media pages, allowing customers to stay up-to-date on our latest news and product offerings. Finally, we have provided a download link for our mobile app, enabling customers to access our products and services conveniently from their mobile devices.

1.1.2 Dairy Page:

Our dairy page features a wide range of fresh dairy products, including milk, cheese, yogurt, and more. Customers can easily browse through our selection of dairy products using the navigation bar or search bar, and can find helpful information and resources in the footer section.

1.1.3 Fruits and Vegetables Page:

Our fruits and vegetables page is dedicated to providing customers with high-quality fresh produce. From crisp apples to juicy oranges, our selection of fruits and vegetables is sure to meet your needs. Customers can browse through our products using the navigation bar or search bar, and can find helpful resources in the footer section.

1.1.4 Groceries Page:

Our groceries page features a wide range of everyday essentials, including pantry staples, canned goods, and more. Customers can easily find the products they need using the navigation bar or search bar, and can access additional resources and information in the footer section.

1.1.5 Snacks Page:

Our snacks page is designed to provide customers with a wide range of tasty and nutritious snack options. From chips and pretzels to granola bars and fruit snacks, our selection has something for everyone. Customers can browse through our products using the navigation bar or search bar, and can find helpful resources in the footer section.

5 Conclusion:

In conclusion, we want to thank our coordinator and supervisor for their help in our project. We learned a lot about website design by creating a clone of the Blinkit model website, using tools like HTML, CSS Bootstrap and JavaScript. Although our website is not fully functional yet, we were able to create a design that we can build upon in the future. This project was for learning purposes only, and we hope to use the skills and knowledge we gained for future projects. By the way, we had a great experience and learned a lot through this project.
